Project Summary

Background

Today's world requires, even from elderly man active educational attitude, flexibility, openness, current update of the knowledge, it is even said about intellectual mobility that helps to adjust to constantly changing conditions. The research shows that people in late adulthood often feel incomplete and less needed. When they retire they are more likely to feel isolated, excluded from the society, have limited interpersonal contacts. They don't

Objectives

We want to engage and inspire our Students to be more involved in social and public life honoring European values (human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, rule of law, human rights). We are committed for them to exchange thoughts, views, good practices in terms of activities related to everyday life, environmental protection, digital education and AI with people from other countries. The mutual exchange of practices can inspire activities in their own local society.

Impact

We want our project to increase consciousness of our Students in the following areas: 1. use of life knowledge, life, career and educational experience of our Students. 2. environmental protection on local and global level. 3. better knowledge of EU values.

We hope our Students will make new friends, learn to accept different points of view and experiences, start to be open to diversity and dissimilarity. Students will gain new skills: language, digital,
